Clothing and Textiles

Name:	Club:	Date	Leaders Initials
Guidelines for Project Proficiency Award INTERMEDIATE (3rd and 4th years)
1 2	Learn to take accurate body measurements and make simple pattern alterations for a better fit. Coordinate the fabric, pattern and all notions for a garment you will make. Learn to read fabric and clothing labels and how to care for various fabric types, such as polyester, cotton, wool, silk.
5	. Identify various types of fabric weaves, such as satin, gabardine, denim, tweed Complete a clothing (wardrobe) inventory to assess clothing needs.
6	. Select and buy an article of clothing that is needed in your wardrobe and can be mixed or matched with garments you already own.
	. Learn to recognize fitting problems and how to correct them. Select a pattern(s) using at least three construction methods suitable for your chosen fabric that are new to you, such as:
	set in sleeves zipper - center meeting, fly, invisible
	new seam finishes
	pockets
	darts, tucks or pleats new hem stitches and hem finishes
	collars
	cuffs
9	waist band Learn to read and follow pattern guides adding appropriate seam finishes for fabric and seam function that may not be mentioned in instructions.
1	0. Learn to clean, care for, and adjust your sewing machine.	*****
	1. Identify and learn to use pressing equipment such as pressing cloth, clapper, etc. 2. Learn to recognize good construction techniques in boughten clothing and comp are the cost with a home made garment.		-
	3. Learn to lay out a pattern on a napped, repeat design or plaid fabric.
	4. Learn sewing techniques for working with knits. 5. Use at least two decorative details on garments you make trim or lace cording
	pockets
	yokes
	applique or fabric paint
	contrasting materials, color, or prints
	use of buttons and for button holes
	top stitching
	seam finishes such as flat felt
1.	other6. Select, make or buy accessories for a garment or outfit you made.
	7. Learn mending techniques.
	8. Keep a record of the cost of the clothes and accessories you buy and make.
	9. Learn to launder a sweater.
	O. Give at least one demonstration related to the clothing project at the County Presentation Day.
	1. Exhibit your project at a club or county event (fair, exhibit night, display window).
2:	2. Participate in at lease one County Fashion Review (in any division).
Leader	sed 12/92 s Signature: Date:

?PFORMS/9Z/LSR