Citrus Research Growers' Education Seminars

2011 Series – Southern California Program Citrus Research Board (CRB) and UCCE

Pala Casino Spa Resort Thursday, February 17, 2011

Pala Casino Hotel, 35008 Pala Temecula Road (Between Temecula & Escondido – just 5 miles east of I-15)

Registration opens at 7:30 a.m. -8:30 a.m.

"Good Buds/Bad Buds"

Can we select scion buds that will produce more productive trees?

Dr. Carol Lovatt, UCR, Prof. of Plant Physiology

"More options = Risks and Benefits for Growers"

New Varieties & Rootstocks-Incompatibilities

Dr. Mikeal Roose, UCR, Chair & Prof. of Genetic, Botany & Plant Sciences

"Major Soil-borne Fungal Diseases in Citrus & their Control"
Control treatment applications & cultural practices to prevent infection
Dr. Akif Eskalen, UCCE, Plant Pathologist

Diaprepes Root Weevil update Dr. Gary Bender, UCCE, Farm Advisor

"Statewide & San Diego County Water Issues "
Discussion on state & local water availability/quality
Eric Larson, Exec. Director, San Diego Farm Bureau

"Efficient Citrus Irrigation: Methods, Monitoring & Mgmt" Crop water use, soil moisture storage & monitoring, irrigation methods, and management options for citrus

Blake Sanden, UCCE, Irrigation & Agronomy Farm Advisor

"Invaders at the Gate: Outlook for Invasive Pests of CA Citrus"

Invasive Species on Horizon/ACP Predator

Kevin Hoffman, CDFA, Primary State Entomologist

"GIS in Farming Practices"

Kris Lynn-Patterson, UC KAC, GIS Academic Coordinator

"3 in 30"

Rapid fire discussion on hot topics in citrus

Ted Batkin, President, Citrus Research Board

Indio – Coachella Valley Research Station Friday, February 18, 2011

CVARS, 72155 Polk St., Thermal
The CVARS entrance is on the south side of 72nd Ave.
(½ mile west of Polk Street and 72nd Avenue)
Registration opens at 7:30 a.m. -8:00 a.m.

Field Tour of Desert Lemon Trials
Dr. Tracy Kahn & Tom Shea, UCCE, Staff Research Assoc.

"Desert Lemon Trials "

Report on Desert lemon trials production/quality

Dr. Tracy Kahn, UCR, Botany & Plant Sciences

"Invaders at the Gate: Outlook for Invasive Pests of CA Citrus"

Invasive Species on Horizon/ACP Predator

Kevin Hoffman, CDFA, Primary State Entomologist

"Major Soil-borne Fungal Diseases in Citrus & their Control"
Control treatment applications & cultural practices to prevent infection
Dr. Akif Eskalen, UCCE, Plant Pathologist

"Statewide & Local Water Quality/Availability"
Coachella Valley Water District, Speaker TBA

"GIS in Farming Practices"

Kris Lynn-Patterson, UC KAC, GIS Academic Coordinator

"3 in 30"

Rapid fire discussion on hot topics in citrus

Ted Batkin, President, Citrus Research Board

Each session will include significant time for Questions & Answers

Applications pending for continuing education hours for both programs

$20.00 per person includes lunch and course materials

Advance Reservations are strongly recommended to guarantee lunch

To register: please mail coupon by no later than February 4, 2011

Or - Phone (559) 738-0246, fax (559) 738-0607, or send an e-mail message to lnfo@citrusresearch.org by noon February 5, 2011 (You may pay at the door)

Growers' Seminar:	Pala Check one above	_Indio
Name
Address:
Phone:	Fax:
Email:

Make check payable to: Citrus Research Board

Enclosed is my check in the amount of $

Mail check with this form to: Citrus Research Board

P.O. Box 230

Visalia, Ca. 93279