

AgriTourism in Trinity County

Farm & Ranch Stays

- Can be simple or elaborate
- Consider partnership with local café

Vineyard "Stays"

Butter Creek

R A N C H

2 0 0 5

T R I N I T Y C O U N T Y

ALC. 14% BY VOL. 750ML

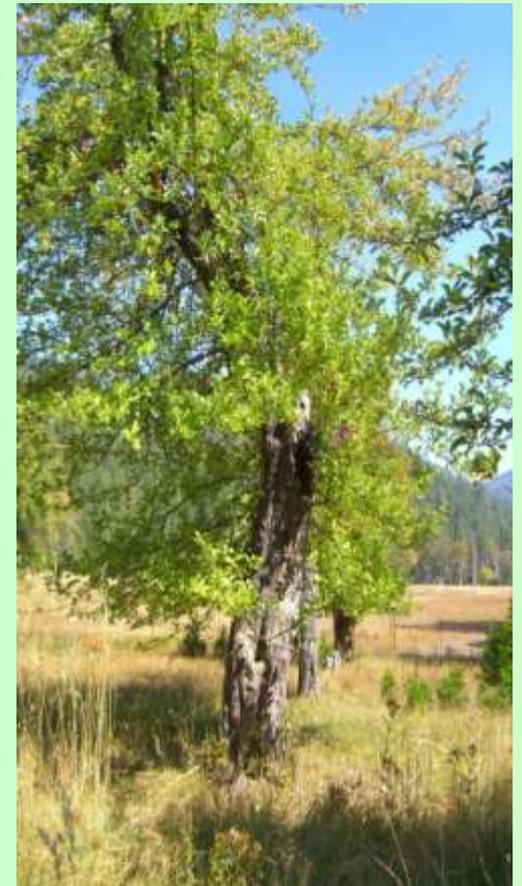

Offer participation in farm or ranch activities, but consider risk management

EAGLE CREEK RANCH

Heritage "Stays"

Not a working ranch, selling
ag history

Carrville Inn

Need to be a "people"
person

Alpen Cellars, Northern Trinity County

simple tasting “room”

One Maple Winery

- Wine tasting
- Concerts
- Weddings
- Catered Events

“Education”

People want to learn

- Tours
- Classes
- Exhibits
- Museums
- Day Camp

*Tule Creek Ranch
Equestrian Center*

First there is good advertising

Willow Creek Farm

Taste
of Willow
Creek

Music with your hay ride

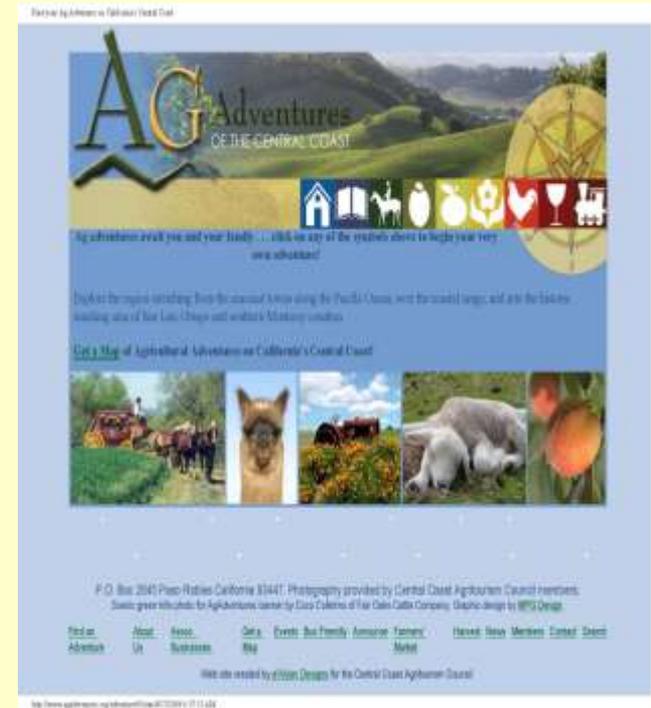

And of course there's wine

Farm Trails

Heritage Orchard Trail
(in progress)

Happy Valley Farm Trail

February 13th - Noon

Ermal Jones: spraying dormant trees

March 13th or 20th

Denis Possehn: watering pastures

April 17th - Noon

Happy Valley Pack Goats: Pack goat demonstration/ hoof trimming demo

Farmer's Markets

- Use to market your business
- Hand out flyers about upcoming classes & events

Trinity Roots

Home

Trinity County Eat Local Challenge 2010

About Us

About Trinity County

Wineries & Vineyards

Farm & Ranch Stays

Farmer's Markets & Local Growers

Livestock Producers

Equestrian Connection

Heritage Orchard Project

Herbs & Herbal Products

Agricultural History

Forest Restoration Projects

"Wanted" Posters

Agricultural Supplies

Weaverville Revitalization

Contact Us

Welcome to your guide to the farms, ranches and forests of Trinity County, California. Help support local agriculture and enjoy agritourism opportunities.

We invite you to tour local vineyards, stay at a working ranch, buy fruits and vegetables fresh from the farm, pet a llama, attend an equestrian clinic or visit forest restoration projects, historic barns and heritage orchard.

What would you like to do?

Tour a vineyard or winery

Stay at a farm or ranch

Buy fresh fruit or vegetables

Buy livestock, poultry or pasture-raised beef

Learn horsemanship or take a trail ride

Buy locally produced herbs and herbal products

Tour heirloom apple orchards

Tour forest restoration projects

Explore the agricultural history of the County

Lee Ranch House in Weaverville

Current Events

"Growing Agritourism" workshop

Feb 23rd, 8:30 am - 4:15 pm
Wetter Hall (1740 Walnut St), Red Bluff

Farmers, tourism professionals & local officials can learn about the challenges & opportunities for farms considering the hospitality business. For more information, click here.

Sponsored by UC Small Farm Program.

Ongoing Events

The Farmer's Markets in Weaverville and Hayfork now closed for the winter. Check them out in May 2011: