FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Glenn County 4-H'ers Went to "4-H Camp 2018...Swinter Olympics: Goin' for Gold" at Mt. Lassen Camp in Mineral

Over 68 4-H members, 22 Teen Counselors, 4 Youth Directors and 20 adult staff from Glenn County 4-H attended the annual 4-H Summer Camp held at Mt. Lassen Camp in Mineral, reports UCCE Glenn County 4-H Program Representative, Alyssa Perry. This year's camp was under the direction of Camp Director, Eric Roberts, along with Youth Directors Bucky Squier, Kathy Valle, Chase Butterfield and Katherine Taylor. The theme of the camp was "Swinter Olympics: Goin' for Gold", with each cabin representing a different Olympic Sport. There were many activities offered, including scavenger hunt, crafts, dancing, fishing, fort building, ice cream making, recreational games, tie dying, and much more. Campers had the opportunity to experience an outdoor setting, conducive to learning how to get along with others and learn the value of participation. 4-H members from ages 9-13 participated as campers, while 14-19 year-old 4-H members served as youth counselors.

Youth counselors this year were Jacy Mull, Evan Bailey, Morgan Skala, Viviana Olmos, Trinity Cobb, Amber Kurth, Jack Lazzaretto, Maddy Nissen, Sydney Del Pape, Magella Millen, Sheyenne Munguia, Hannah Wetz, Paisley Weigel, Ethan Sims, Callie Tanson, George Amaro, Lauren Tayler, Joey Wills, Danielle Walkup, Levi Walkup and Hannah Gonzalez.
