

University of California
Agriculture and Natural Resources

Making a Difference for California

Kern County

Master Food Preserver Program

2020 Training Class, Bishop, CA (Kern Applicants)

The University of California Cooperative Extension Program is offering four scholarships for persons to be trained as a Master Food Preserver. This is a volunteer position that provides training opportunities to the community after the completion of the training. The selected participants will be responsible for paying for the cost of the course, $175. The scholarship will cover travel costs, meals and lodging. Students must complete the entire training in order to become a certified volunteer for the Master Food Preserver Program.

The trainings will be held at the UCCE Inyo/Mono Counties office in Bishop, California on the following dates for 2020:

- February 11
- February 24-25
- March 9-10
- March 30-31
- April 13-14

Please click the link below to fill out the application. The deadline for applying is January 26, 2020 and those selected will be notified by January 31, 2020.

Master Food Preserver Application

Please click the link below for complete information regarding the Master Food Preserver Program.

UC Master Food Preserver Program

For additional information please contact: Margaret Johns at 661-487-7386 or Dustin Blakey at 760-873-7854.