Glenn County 4-H'ers Went To

“Camp 4-H...Dashin’ through the Decades” at Camp Tehama

Over 73 4-H members, 26 Teen Counselors, three Youth Directors and 23 adult staff from Glenn County 4-H attended the annual 4-H Summer Camp held at Camp Tehama June 22—25 reports UCCE Glenn County 4-H Program Representative Sara van Tol. This year’s camp was under the direction of Camp Director, Jamie Marron, along with Youth Directors Travis Chapman, Summer Curry and Katherine Taylor. The theme of the camp was “Dashin’ through the Decades,” with each cabin representing a different decade. There were many activities offered, including archery, crafts, dancing, fishing, fort building, ice cream making, recreational games, tie-dying, and much more. Campers had the opportunity to experience an outdoor setting conducive to learning how to get along with others and learn the value of participation. 4-H members from ages 9-13 participated as campers, while 14-19 year old 4-H members served as youth counselors.

Youth counselors this year were Bryce Bolt, Evan Bailey, Evan Boone, Chase Butterfield, Parker Close, Rebekah Erickson, Amber Kurth, Jack Lazzaretto, Melinda Lowe, Sarah Mendonca, Magella Millen, Sheyenne Munguia, Michael Sanchez, Kelsey Shippelhoute, Ethan Sims, Mary Squier, Bucky

Squier, Lauren Tayler, Gusten Titus, Kathy Valle, Danielle Walkup, Levi Walkup and Tristen Wesley.
