

Small Grains Nitrogen Management Webtool Training

Tuesday, November 1st 2022, 9 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
 Tulare County UCCE (Tulare County Agricultural Building)
 4437 S. Laspina St., Tulare, CA 93274

Pre-register here: <https://surveys.ucanr.edu/survey.cfm?surveynumber=39345>

Who should attend: Growers, CCAs and other crop consultants specializing in crop nutrient management.

- 8:40 a.m.            Registration, light refreshments
- 9:00 a.m.            Welcome and Introduction
Konrad Mathesius, UCCE Agronomy Advisor, Yolo, Sacramento, and Solano
- 9:05 a.m.            Principles of N fertilizer use in California small grains
- 9:15 a.m.            Measuring field data pre-plant and in-season
                          N-rich reference zones
                          Soil sampling for nitrate
- 9:30 a.m.            Soil nitrate quick test demonstration and data interpretation
- 9:45 a.m.            Webtool example and case studies
Nicholas Clark, UCCE Agronomy Advisor, Kings, Tulare, and Fresno
- 10:00 a.m.           Webtool walkthrough
- 10:40 a.m.           Crop Consultant/ CCA forum, survey, feedback, and discussion
- 12:00 a.m.           Adjourn and Lunch (please remember to RSVP using the link or the QR code above)

CE Credits

CCA: 2-3 (pending)

INMP/Cures: 2 (pending)

For more information, contact Konrad Mathesius (kpmathesius@ucanr.edu) or Nick Clark (neclark@ucanr.edu).