New Business

New Event – Livestock Evaluation - Shauna Jones reports she has been corresponding with Christine Kampmann about a new livestock evaluation event. Branden Close-Orland High Ag Advisor along with Mr. Jones will lead this event. It will be a one-day live class located at Orland High on a Wednesday or Thursday night from 5-7pm OR 6-8pm. Currently looking at hosting the event between January 12th - January 20th. Members will learn the basics and how to apply it. Shauna mentioned interest in adding poultry and pygmy goats but will need to get information or extra person that has knowledge in these areas. This will be a free event.

Glenn County T-Shirt-4-H Glenn County shirts were approved in approximately 2019 to have as a stockpile for purchase at the office and for prizes. This idea was re-presented tonight. Two Shirt designs were presented, and attendees voted for shirt option two. Corie Hurlburt made a motion to purchase 205 shirts ranging from youth small to adult 3xl for shirt option two, with a budget not to exceed $2,500. This was seconded by Jaime Hobbs. Unanimously approved by attendees. Abby Alves and Christine Kampmann are still in the process of gathering additional quotes.

Committee/Project Reports- (5-minute time limit per report)

Hope for the Holidays Emerald Star Project Update – Adrianna Hurlburt, Willows 4-H Community Club- reported she is still in need of toothpaste, brushes, hair ties, q-tips, deodorant, and lotions (travel size requested).

Livestock Challenge/Field Day Event Committee Update – Committee Chair, Capay 4-H Community Club and Lake 4-H Community Club-Mark Kampmann reports there were a few hiccups here and there, but it went well overall. Shauna Jones states per Lisa Humphrey's, she thought it was a success. Had enough time to tabulate everything. Lisa is curious on the number of participants however that number was not readily available during the meeting.

Bowl-A-Thon Committee Update – Committee Chair, Willows 4-H and Plaza 4-H Community Club, Corie Hurlburt reports door prizes are still needed. There are currently 62 participants signed up. An attendee suggested a short waiting list since participation is already at capacity.

Fundraiser Dinner Committee Update – Committee Chair, Abby Alves reports the committee had their first planning meeting. The dinner will be on March 4th from 3-7. It will be dine-in and drive thru. There will not be a silent auction this year as it was put out to clubs to chair and there was no interest. Ticket packets will be out by January club meetings. Every member will receive a packet of tickets to sell. There are top seller incentives, battle of the bakers contest and there will be a carnival at the dinner. Each club will receive $1 for every ticket that is sold by their club.

Fair Cookhouse Renovations Committee Update – Committee Chair, Marci Sanchez-absent-tabled until next meeting.

Adopt-A-Family Committee Update – Hi 4-H Project, Shopping and Wrapping- No lists avail yet should know more next week per Christine Kampmann.

ABA Extravaganza Event Committee Update – Schaffert 4-H Community Club and Clover 4-H Community Club-Tabled until next meeting as there is no information available.

County Presentation Day Event Committee Update – Clover 4-H Community Club and Stoney Creek 4-H Community Club- Tabled until next meeting as there is no information available.
