

Organized 4-H Clubs Decision Flowchart

4/2018

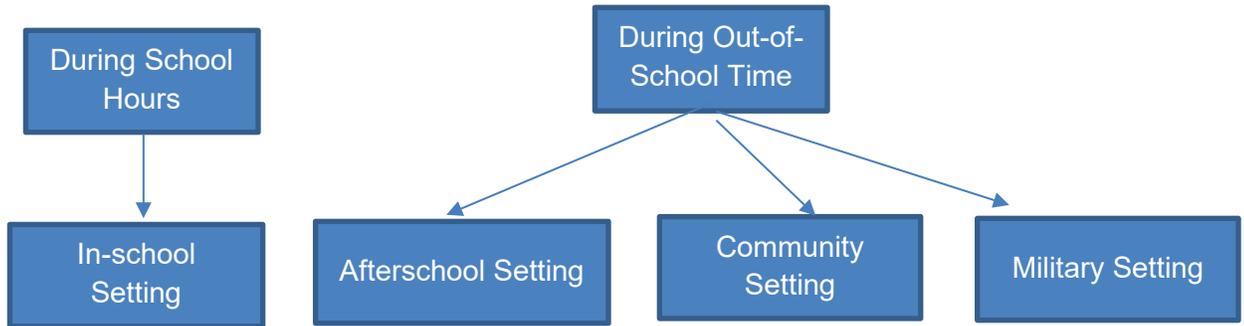

Based on the interests and needs of the youth, families, communities and/or program partners, answer and follow these steps.

Steps:

- 1) Determine your club setting & delivery mode.

Settings

Delivery Modes:

Type

Description

In school	Afterschool	Community Clubs	Military Setting
Organized in school settings during school hours.	Serve youth in a specific school, program or setting	Organized in local communities, open to all youth and families	Organized in military installations for military dependents

2) Determine the Club Model.

4-H Community Club	Practice decision-making and participate in diverse educational activities related to club projects and governance & develop mastery of a specific content, generally over a shorter period of time
4-H Community SPIN Club	Practice decision-making and participate in diverse educational activities yearlong related to club projects and governance
4-H In-School Club	Organized in-school settings, provide educational content and lessons designed to complement, meet and/or enhance the school's core curriculum
4-H In-School SPIN Club	Organized in-school setting, provide educational content and lessons designed to complement, meet and/or enhance the school's core curriculum & develop mastery of a specific content, generally over a shorter period of time
4-H Afterschool Club	Organized in and afterschool setting, provide opportunities to youth to learn valuable skills and lifelong benefits and contribute to their community through "hands-on" project-based learning
4-H Afterschool SPIN Club	Organized in and afterschool setting , provide opportunities to youth to learn valuable skills and lifelong benefits and contribute to their community through "hands-on" project-based learning & develop mastery of a specific content, generally over a shorter period of time.
4-H Military Club	Organized on Military installations for military dependents, Youth receive 4-H YDP curricula or other educational materials. Military staff are trained by CE staff or 4-H Adult Volunteers.
4-H Military SPIN Club	Organized on Military installations for military dependents Youth receive 4-H YDP curricula or other educational materials. Military staff are trained by CE staff or 4-H Adult Volunteers.

