

Rabbit Level 3 Study Sheet - Digestive Parts & Functions

There is no full study guide available for the Level 3 rabbit test. Look in Study guides for L1 and L2 for answers, and find the other answers on the internet.

Place the number of the labeled part from the drawing below beside the correct name.

Anus: 11	Appendix: 8	Functional Caecum: 7	Large Intestine: 9
Esophagus: 2	Liver: 4	Pancreas: 5	Rectum: 10
Salivary Glands: 1	Small Intestine: 6	Stomach: 3

Place the number of the labeled part from the drawing below beside the function of that part.

Absorption of most food nutrients: 6	Absorption of water and minerals: 9	Digestion begins: 3	Emits fecal pellets: 11
Fecal pellets are stored: 10	Holding area for bacterial digestion: 7	Tube for food passage from mouth to stomach: 2	Secretes saliva to moisten food: 1
Releases bile: 4	Releases juice to aid in digestion of starch, fats & proteins: 5	Aids in digestion of cellulose: 8

