

UC Master Gardeners of Santa Barbara County present:

FREE, Monthly Garden Talks with UC Master Gardener

The UC Master Gardeners of Santa Barbara County invite you to join us for a free, online Garden Talk on Monday, October 9, 2023, at 7:00pm.

UC Master Gardener Debbi Knauff will share a research-based presentation, "A Guide to Edible Flowers in Your Garden".

Debbi will provide information on: which garden flowers are edible, strategies for successfully growing these flowers, and identifying some flowers which are not edible. Growing beautiful flowers is a gardeners delight. Imagine growing gorgeous blooms and being able to enjoy them in a salad or dessert as well.

Please join us to learn about some culinary flowers.
