

MONTEREY COUNTY 4-H

STAR PRESENTER AWARD

GUIDELINES & APPLICATION
(Deadline is Tuesday, July 16, 2024)

WHAT IS THE STAR PRESENTER AWARD?

The Star Presenter Award is a county recognition given to a 4-H member who has presented their 4-H Presentation five or more times during the program year. This includes a certificate and a medal for a 4-H hat. The Council's Incentives and Recognition Committee and 4-H staff, reviews all applications and makes final decisions.

WHY SHOULD I FOCUS ON THIS AWARD?

Both Public speaking and setting goals are important skills to learn in the Youth Development Program. The Monterey County Incentives and Recognition (I. & R.) committee has established this award to recognize members who planned, prepared, presented and completed a 4-H Presentation five times or more during the program year. Unlike a judged or scored process, this process recognizes the member who sets a goal to be active in the 4-H star ranking process.
