All 4-H programs offer projects that fall under four focus areas: STEM, Healthy Living, Civic Engagement, and Leadership. 4-H has over 100 projects for the youth members to find their spark! Archery, Robotics, Ham Radio, Astronomy, and Animal projects. What sparks your interest?

The University of California 4-H Youth Development Program promotes hands-on, experiential learning for all youth ages 5-19. Our 4-H programs are delivered locally through the county University of California Cooperative Extension (UCCE) office, our office is in Lakeport to assist our volunteer leaders.

Lake County 4-H enrollment for the 23-24 year ends December 31st.

4-H is open to all youth, regardless of their ability to pay. Program fees can be waived or reduced for eligible youth. Check the box on the online enrollment form for 4-H county staff to contact you. You can call Lake County 4-H at 707-263-6838 or email jgoulart@ucanr.edu
