ABA Judging Scored!

More than 40 Glenn County 4-H Youth Members participated in the ABA (Anything But Animals) Judging Event held on Thursday, February 15, 2024, at Plaza Elementary School, reports Glenn County 4-H Community Education Specialist Christine Kampmann.

The youth chair for this event was Gracie Cloyd of Schaffert 4-H Club and the adult chair was Marci Sanchez of Schaffert 4-H Club. The committee members were Mackenzie Rehse and Janene Rehse of Schaffert 4-H Club. The 4-H ABA Judging Event provides the members the opportunity to judge a variety of ABA topics, which is a process to help 4-H members enhance their abilities to think, reason, and make logical and scientific decisions. Each member then presents their reasons for their placings to an evaluator.

Primary members received a participation ribbon and certificate, listed by club, these members are: Capay 4-H Club- Gus Coleman and Madison Johnson; Schaffert 4-H Club- Chloe Goss, Kate Goss, Maysen van Tol, and Trent van Tol; and Willows 4-H Club- Jackson Pool and Joaquin Ramirez. In the Junior Division, ABA Judging winners were: 1st Place- Emma Rodgers of the Schaffert 4-H Club, 2nd Place- Rylee Dobbs of the Schaffert 4-H Club, 3rd Place- Sawyer Flowers of the Willows 4-H Club. ABA Judging Intermediate Division winners were: 1st Place Tie- Haylee Philp and Mercedes Diaz-Gonzalez of the Willows 4-H Club, 2nd Place- James Keeney of the Capay 4-H Club, 3rd Place- Allan Rodriguez of the Willows 4-H Club. The ABA Judging Senior Division winners were: 1st Place- Haylee Exner of the Plaza 4-H Club, 2nd Place- Maddisen Pool of the Willows 4-H Club, and 3rd Place- Eddie Rodriguez of the Willows 4-H Club.

Thank you to the committee chairs and members for facilitating the event and providing the opportunity to our 4-H members. Also, thank you to Plaza Elementary School for hosting the event.
