4-H Project Shout outs

Crochet Project & Community Service Project Novato

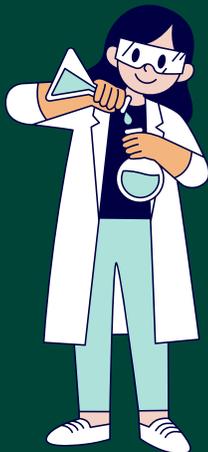

Our Marin 4-H crocheters are starting their County Fair projects in the beginner to advanced group! Our committed leaders, Linda and Anita, share valuable tips and tricks on stitches, pattern reading, and the enjoyable culture of fiber arts! We can't wait to see their masterpieces on display at the County Fair, showcasing not only their skills but also the warm community spirit that 4-H fosters

We are incredibly #novatoproud of the volunteers from the Indian Valley 4-H Club and the Iglesia Cristo Es La Puerta Church Youth Group, who dedicated their Saturday morning to hand-pull a substantial area of highly invasive French broom from the Anderson Rowe Open Space. By removing this plant while it's still young, they helped prevent it from becoming a fire hazard. Our community is truly grateful for their assistance! The volunteers worked quickly, completing the removal of the entire patch in just two hours!

MARIN COUNTY FARM DAY
Marin County Lagoon Park

Thursday, March 20, 2025
9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon

Agriculture is a leading industry in Marin County. A coalition of farm groups work together to focus on the importance of agriculture and farming in Marin County by celebrating National Agriculture Week in March. Farm Day exhibits and activities are planned to give students more awareness of agriculture's role in Marin County around the theme:

"Tiny Workers, Big Impact"

Members bring their animals, rocks, and/or posters to share with school groups that come on a field trip to Farm Day. We will be setting up our table around 7:30 am. Members and their animals/rocks/posters need to be at our table by 8:15 am and we will be done by 12:00 noon. We will have a mini-dog obstacle course set up for members who would like to demonstrate their dog handling skills.

Email Caryl at carylhodes14@gmail.com and let her know if you can come. If you need a letter providing an excuse for your school, let her know so she can arrange with the Marin County 4-H Office.
